

Start of the polo season at the Whippany River Club, near Morristown, N. J. Photograph shows the Whippany Whips, left to right: G. C. Sherman, A. W. Kinney, Richard Williams and W. D. Lyons.
Photo, International.

Miss Jean Shuster of Pittsburg, a student at Nebraska University, who ran a quarter mile in 52.25, a new record for women.
Photo, International.

Col. William C. Procter of Cincinnati, who advanced $500,000 to promote Gen. Leonard Wood's candidacy for the Presidency. Photo, International.

Scene from the historical pageant at Syracuse University: "A Spring Improvisation." Left to right: Miss Marjorie Ullman, Miss Cornelia Smith and Mrs. Alice Watkins.

Italy's ace of aces here on government business; Col. Piccio, who downed thirty-two enemy airplanes and two observation balloons.
Photo, International.

Above—Impressionistic bust of Edgar Allan Poe made by Olaf Bjorkman, a New York sculptor.
Photo, Underwood & Underwood.

At right—Bronze tablet overlaid with gold that marks the pew in the St. Nicholas Collegiate Church, New York, occupied for years by Theodore Roosevelt and his family. Photo, International.

Just a few of the thousands of letters and telegrams sent to Congress in opposition to the bonus bill. Representative Frank W. Mondell of Wyoming, Republican House leader, is getting a line on the country's sentiment toward the vote buying scheme.
Photo, International.